Business Announcement.

I have this day disposed of my interest in the CHRONICLE office to A. J. Hicks, who has been editorially connected with the paper since the first number was issued. This change has been made because my official and business relations demand my entire time. The transfer is a business transaction, made under circumstances satisfactory to all concerned.

The outstanding accounts and liabilities of the office will be settled by the new firm.

In severing my connection with the CHRONICLE, I ask for the continued support of all its patrons, and particularly of those who have been interested in its success because of personal regard for me.

H. C. TATWATER.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Oct. 10th, 1880.

The publication of the CHRONICLE will be continued by the undersigned, under the firm name and style of Rule & Hicks.

The editorial department will be conducted in the future, as it has been heretofore, by the new proprietors. The change in the business department will, therefore, make no change in the control or management of the paper.

WILLIAM RULE.

A. J. HICKS.

Notice.

All persons entitled to premiums and diplomas are requested to call at the Secretary's office to-day.

Died.

On the 3d inst., at Maynardville, Layayette H., infant son of Dr. R. J. and C. Carr, aged 10 months and 10 days.

Fire.

Yesterday morning about five o'clock, a fire broke out in Wm. Key's stable on Summit Hill. The stock was saved, but stable and contents were consumed.

The Freshet.

Mr. Meems, son-in-law of our respected fellow-citizen, Jas. H. Cowan, residing in Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, lost about $6,000 by the recent freshet. He lost over 4,000 bushels of corn. The river rose 25 feet higher than ever before known. The rise was so sudden that he was unable to get away his property.

Suicide.

We are informed that Mr. J. M. Prater, who lives near Lenoir's station, Loudon county, committed suicide on Tuesday by hanging. He went up stairs and suspended himself from the rafters by a bed cord, and when found life was extinct. We do not know whether he had any family beyond a wife.

Our Custom House.

The work of removing the buildings on the custom house lot, corner of Prince and Clinch streets, will begin as soon as the fair is over. Messrs. Lackey & O'Connor, the livery stable men, were too busy this week with the fair to be disturbed, and indulgence was given them. In a few days the work of moving will begin, and the most skeptical will then be persuaded that the custom house and post office is an assured thing.

Married.

By G. W. Levere, at Shiloh church, on yesterday evening, Edward T. Durlins, of Richmond, Virginia, to Mary A. Stone, of this city. By Rev. F. H. Russell, October 4th, Mr. John T. Brown, to Miss Mattie Hickman—all of Knox county.

On the 20th ult., by Rev. F. H. Russell, Mr. George W. Swann to Miss Rebecca Craig—all of Knox county.

Good News from Ireland.

During the Irish famine we sent a million of dollars' worth of food to Cork. Ireland is now repaying the debt with interest; not from her exchequer, not from harvest fields, but from the adamant rocks on her coast. An enterprising company in New York is importing shiploads of the edible moss that grows on her cliffs, and converting it, under the name of Sea Moss Farine, into an economic source of nourishment and palatable food. The new source of aliment is prepared under a patent, and although but a year in the market, has already taken precedence of all the gelatinous agents heretofore used in cookery. No epicure who has tasted the puddings, custards and jellies made from Sea Moss Farine, will deny that they are incomparable. The saving effected by using this article instead of maize, farina or corn starch (all of which it exceeds in palatability), is about fifty per cent.

LIST OF PREMIUMS

Awarded at the Eastern Division Fair on Saturday, October 8th, 1880.

We submit our Premium List now to the public. There may be errors, and, no doubt, are. If so, we throw ourselves upon the kind forbearance of a generous public. From the inception of the movement to the present moment, the Secretary has been crowded with numerous and perplexing duties; at the same time he has done the best he could under the circumstances of the case. Certainly he has tried hard to please all and to make our Eastern Division Fair a glorious success. Nor is he insensible to the words of cheer and approval he has met with from every quarter.

To the ladies, he is especially indebted. They have done nobly. When others were indifferent, they stood by us, and bade us be of good cheer. God bless them!

The Secretary is under obligations to his assistants, Col. W. H. Lillard and Maj. Will R. McBeth, for their cheerful and laborious aid in carrying him through his labors.

C. W. CHALTON, Sec. &c.
